REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Tarabu Betserai

The Executive Committee of the Pacifica Foundation, upon the advice of its FCC attorneys, filed suit to protest and review the sanctions announced against Pacifica station KPFK on April 16th. The appeal has been filed in the Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit and will seek to set aside both the warning announced by the FCC and the threat to criminally prosecute Pacifica and its programmers.

Pacifica believe it was singled out for especially harsh treatment by the FCC for political reasons which will not bear scrutiny by any reasonable judicial process. There was to Pacifica's knowledge only one complaint filed with the FCC regarding the programming, while the FCC reports thousands of complaints regarding other broadcast licensees. There is not one complaint on record that a single child or juvenile listened to the program. The program, unlike the other broadcasts investigated by the commission, was neither intended nor designed to attract a large audience, or an audience with younger listeners. The program was part of a regular series serving the gay community of Los Angeles.

There is no question that there is plenty of material aired by broadcast operations that contains profanity and sexual innuendo and much of it filters throughout airwaves and television stations everyday with major network approval, in full view of children and at a time when they would most likely be listening. One has only to view "Scared Straight," which was full of explicit sexual/homosexual language and profanity in a gratuitous and repetitive manner, and aired twice on Channel 5 to recognize that there is a "double standard" being applied by the FCC. Yet the FCC does not attack the networks, warn them, or even scold them.

The programming material at issue is really contemporary literature which has clear artistic value but might have language or be about subjects that may offend this particular commission. Radio is the only medium by which people who cannot afford $50 to go to see a play or $20 to buy a book from a small press, can receive contemporary literature for free. Pacifica has been a traditional outlet for many controversial issues and has consistently been willing to put this material on the air. TV doesn't air the poets or plays, or Spanish language programming or gay programming, or African American public affairs with any regularity or commitment.

FCC General Counsel, Diane Killory, admitted on a Ted Koppel program, that the FCC action was designed to chill broadcasters from programming certain material which the commission finds offensive. Which means that if you are a broadcaster and material which you program does not agree with the commission's value structure or comes too close to offending this particular commission it will be banned, licensees will be subject to possible fines, and possible revocation of licenses. What is really at stake here is censorship, not obscenity. Obscenity under the law is not permissible.

The new guidelines announced by the FCC, and applied retroactively to KPFK, are so vague as to be impossible to follow. According to the new policy, sensitive material or programming that the FCC considers indecent, can no longer be aired whenever children are listening. But the Commission further admits that there is not a time in Los Angeles which does not have children in the audience. Accordingly poetry, plays, novels or other performances which contain "dirty" words or sexual innuendo, regardless of the merit of the work or its redeeming value, are banned from broadcasting.

This ban is simply one more attack, similar to the attacks on our nation's libraries and schools, censoring the ideas and exchange necessary for any civilized country. If we are to really talk about the question of obscenity let us talk about the thousands of people being killed by the racist apartheid government of South Africa, or our U.S. policy of destabilizing governments in Central America, or the streets lined with people without homes or food in downtown Los Angeles. That is obscene.

To single out such efforts for criminal prosecution strikes Pacifica as a constitutional abuse of far reaching consequence to the entire broadcast industry. The lesson clearly sought by the FCC was not to simply chill controversial language, but to censor political critics of this administration. The Pacifica Foundation is determined to fight this new attempt to establish a national standard of "morality" and to seek support in its fight from a wide variety of community, legal and broadcast groups. The ACLU of Southern California is preparing separate legal action on our behalf, the National Federation of Community Broadcasters has offered their unanimous support and a number of attorneys, organizations and individuals have volunteered their support to help us fight this effort.

You can help by writing letters of support to KPFK, protesting the FCC action, to Dennis Patrick, Chairman, Federal Communications Commission, 1919 M. Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. We are also organizing efforts to gather support from a number of organizations, artists and individuals, spearheaded by KPFK's Local Advisory Board and the Pacifica National Office. If you are interested in supporting this effort please write the Pacifica National Office at 3729 Cahuenga Blvd., West, North Hollywood, CA 91604.

213-681-6593IRAN/CONTRAGATE COVERAGE

Pacifica Contragate is in its second month and KPFK's local coverage has been outstanding if I might say so myself. The Contragate team, headed by Executive Producer Alan Fong, and members Blair Zarubick, Bob Young, Zeta Graham, Diane James, Leibert Whittaker, Cory Dubin, and Fernando Velasquez, all deserve many kudos for the long hard hours they have been contributing to bring you the facts behind the facts. We thank you, the listeners also for your contributions in helping us support this coverage.

June is Fund Drive month and we have a revised and reduced fund drive period. Instead of going our traditional 14 days KPFK will be attempting a 10-day fund drive period in June from June 12th through June 21st. Shorter days mean higher goals but also less stress for you, the listeners, and our staff. There are many exciting programs scheduled along with the continuing coverage of the Iran/Contra hearings.

SIMPSON-RODINO RADIO SERIES

The first national broadcast of the Simpson-Rodino Radio Series which originated from KPFK's studios was a successful and important event. KPFK has decided to carry parts two and three of this series which will air on June 6th in English from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. in Spanish. Part three will air in July.

WHAT DID THE PRESIDENT KNOW? AND WHEN DID HE KNOW IT?

That phrase made famous by the now White House Chief of Staff Howard Baker as a Senator during the Watergate hearings is expected to be heard once more in the halls of Congress as the Senate and House Select Committee hearings get underway into the Iran/Confragrate scandal. KPFK will be there to bring you those hearings LIVE from Washington. But, many argue that the scandal has deep roots in the American psyche; KPFK will take a look at that darkside of the scandal as well. Because information on this issue is coming out so quickly, some of our regular programming may be pre-empted to allow for full coverage of Iran/Confragrate.

While KPFK airs the 'Confragrate' hearings 'from gavel to gavel,' you are welcomed to come into the station, volunteer some time, possibly help answer phones, and listen to the hearings here in the station with us. And please remember that we will also need you during our Summer Fund Drive as it falls partly during the hearings. Thank You.
